

Pennsylvania College of Technology

A Penn State Affiliate

Pennsylvania College of Technology

- A national leader in applied technology and STEM education
- Main campus in Williamsport, PA
- ~Over 5,000 students, 800+ employees
- Customized Training, Apprenticeship Sponsorship and Training, Certificates, Associates, Bachelor's and Master's degrees
- Millions of dollars in value in donated equipment and resources through industry partnerships
- Electronics lab equipment investment with 16 student-installed Programmable Logic Controller stations, four Kuka industrial robots and a conveyer system.
- Shell Polymers Rotational Molding Center of Excellence
- $5 million, new 55,000 sq ft advanced welding lab

INVESTMENT SPOTLIGHT

#InvestInCentralPA

“We are a net importer of people to Pennsylvania which provides a great economic benefit to the community and region, and a richness and diversity, as well” Davie Jane Gilmour, President of Penn College

